Zoltán Fekete

Manager

Emerging Technologies
Data & Analytics

Joined KPMG in October 2005

Qualifications	• Applied mathematician, MSc degree, Eötvös Loránd University of Science, 2004
Professional experience	Zoltán is a Manager at KPMG's IT Advisory Services department in Hungary, he joined the company in 2005. He works as senior expert and project manager in Data & Analytics and Robotic Process Automation projects and related tasks. He has considerable knowledge regarding Data Warehouse and Reporting system implementation and Quality Assurance. Over the past 10+ years Zoltan participated in several complex ERP implementation project. Currently he is responsible for the Emerging Technologies and Data & Analytics team. He has graduated in Applied mathematics at Eötvos Loránd University of Sciences. During his university study he was specialized in Database planning, Decision analysis and Game Theory.
Main fields	• Robotic Process Automation • Data Warehouse and Reporting system design, implementation and quality assurance • Application architect • Software design / development / testing